

Malama Moloa'a Meeting July 2001

Input From Jeff Rivera, Manager for Moloaa Bay Ranch and Soil Consevation Board member:

"Jimmy Pflueger is nuts. He got money, he don't care. He going to pay the fine he figured. So McCloskey, lolo, he listen to him and did the same thing. They got fines, 40 grand. Luckily they brought it down to 25 thouand. He paid 25 thousand for doing these pads. Now he gota redo the pads plus pay Roger Tamaguchi to do the pads wrong ... never roll them or anything. So now he has to pay the fines, go get some more permits - now do it again."
